

PROCLAMATION JUN 30 1971

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

June 17, 1971

I disapprove, veto, and am filing with the Secretary of State, Senate Bill 813.

On May 31, 1971, I signed House Bill 646 which authorized a broad range of intergovernmental contracting. This bill was recommended by the Texas Urban Development Commission and was part of my legislation program.

House Bill 646 applied to any legally constituted political subdivision of the State. The act defines the purposes for which contracts can be made and the terms and conditions applying to such contracts. Certain provisions of Senate Bill 813 may be construed as more restrictive in nature than the corresponding provisions of House Bill 646. In order to prevent litigation from arising by enactment of two bills similar in intent, but differing in certain language and phraseology, I hereby veto Senate Bill 813.

Senate Bill 813 was received on May 31, 1971, less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the 62nd Legislature. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of Article IV, Section 14, of the Constitution, the State of Texas, I am filing this Proclamation together with the bill in the Office of the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 17th day of June, A. D., 1971.

PRESTON SMITH

GOVERNOR OF TEXAS
